Dear Parent/Carer

Re. Year 11 Mock Exams and revision/intervention timetable.

A reminder that mock exams begin w/b Monday 9th December 2019 in all subjects and they run through to and including the final day of term on Friday 20th December 2019. Attendance is essential. I have been very proud of the way many of Year 11 have been preparing for these exams by proactively creating and commencing healthy revision timetables, attending bespoke interventions, committing to guided revision and perhaps most importantly; chatting with their teachers and year team to find the next best steps for them. We have guided some students to help them cope with the inevitable stresses of exams and would ask you to refer back to the well-being evening presentation available on our website (link to presentation). Good preparation, staying active, eating healthy, steady sleeping habits and getting involved in other interests are all ways to reduce stress. Form tutor and the year team are always available to point our students in the right direction.

Please find attached the current Year 11 revision/intervention offer (link to timetable). This wide ranging and extensive offer is available for students to 'buy into'. Class teachers are best positioned to direct students to appropriate sessions. If a class teacher is directing you to a session, it will be important for your progress. Review of learning is done in every lesson throughout the year though the additional time teachers have offered will be for bespoke refreshing. It is expected for students to make the most of this, especially if they are directed to.

With any potential 'clashes' of revision sessions students should speak to their class teachers to determine a timetable bespoke to their needs.

If you require any further information please don't hesitate to call.

Kind regards

Yours faithfully
