

Hardware and Software

Can you identify each item as software or hardware?

Name	Image	Hardware	Software
Graphics Card
Keyboard
Android (Operating System)
Scratch
Hard Drive
USB Memory Stick
Google Maps

Name	Image	Hardware	Software
Monitor
Windows (Operating System)
Mouse
Printer
Word Processor
CPU
Pokémon Go

Trustworthy vs Untrustworthy websites

1. What is the problem with looking online for information?

--

2. What 6 things should be focus on when deciding if a website is trustworthy or not?

1
2
3
4
5
6

Is this OK?

Activity: Look at the following example situations and tick the appropriate box to say whether it is OK or Against Copyright Law.

Use this tick: ✓

(copy and paste it in the appropriate places in the table below)

Situation	OK	Against Copyright Law
Getting images from 'Google Images' and pasting them in your school work.
Filming a premier league football game and posting it on the web.
Copying and pasting text from the internet and also the website address (URL) of where you got the information from and using it your school work.
Downloading chart music (MP3s) from the internet for free.
Using images from Google images in your school work along with the web address of the source of the images
Downloading chart music (MP3s) from the internet after paying for it.
Copying a piece of text from the internet or from a book and putting that text in your school work.

Avoiding Online Dangers

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

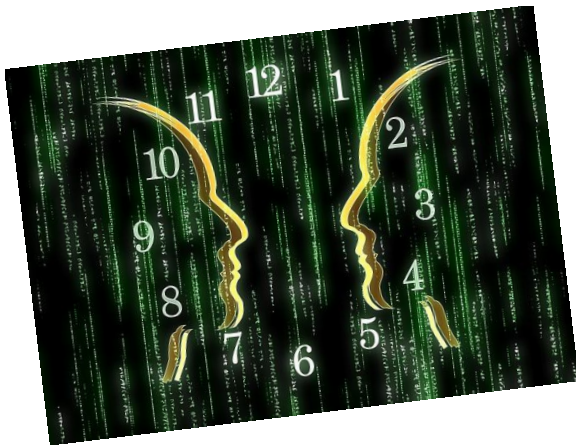

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

What is the danger shown by this image?

List as many ways as you can think to avoid this danger:

Combating Cyber Abuse – Task sheet

Write down all the things you and your school can do to combat cyberbullying.

My Findings:

