

Review of learning:

- What are the key structural features to a fictional story?
- Can you apply them to the story 'Lamb to the Slaughter?'

Analysing Structure

Big Question: How is a sense of mystery is created in the story?

Key structure terms match up:

Focus shift

Paragraph

Dialogue

Flashback

Juxtaposition

Repetition

Place in the text

The order in which events occur. (beginning, middle or end)

Where a character moves back or forward in time.

A block text which focuses on one idea.

Referring to the same idea/ words again.

Where the text changes from one idea to another.

Two contrasting ideas placed in the same extract.

The words spoken by one character.

Where	Mystery?
Beginning
Middle
End
Any other features? Repetition, withholding information	