They were fishermen, likely illiterate and not educated. Yet, Jesus saw potential in them. He calls ordinary people to be His disciples, showing that anyone willing to follow Him can be used for His purposes. The fishermen's response is immediate. They leave everything and follow Jesus. This act of leaving behind their livelihood and security demonstrates their trust and commitment. It teaches us that following Jesus often requires sacrifice and a willingness to let go of our own plans. Our call to follow Jesus is similar. We might feel unqualified or unworthy, but Jesus invites us to trust Him and follow Him wholeheartedly. By answering this call, we embark on a journey of faith, trusting that Jesus will guide and equip us. Like the fishermen, we are called to leave behind anything that hinders our commitment and follow Jesus with our whole heart. Prayer: Lord, help us recognize Your holiness and our need for Your grace. Strengthen us to witness our faith with courage and sincerity. Guide us to follow You wholeheartedly, leaving behind anything that holds us back. Amen.	14th – Valentine's Day 17th – Random Acts of Kindness Day 11th February – Safer Internet Day	Computing

This week's Gospel comes from Luke and describes the presentation of Jesus at the Temple in Jerusalem...

The Disciples Jesus called were just poor fishermen, who were having no luck.

Why do you think Jesus would call these people to follow him?

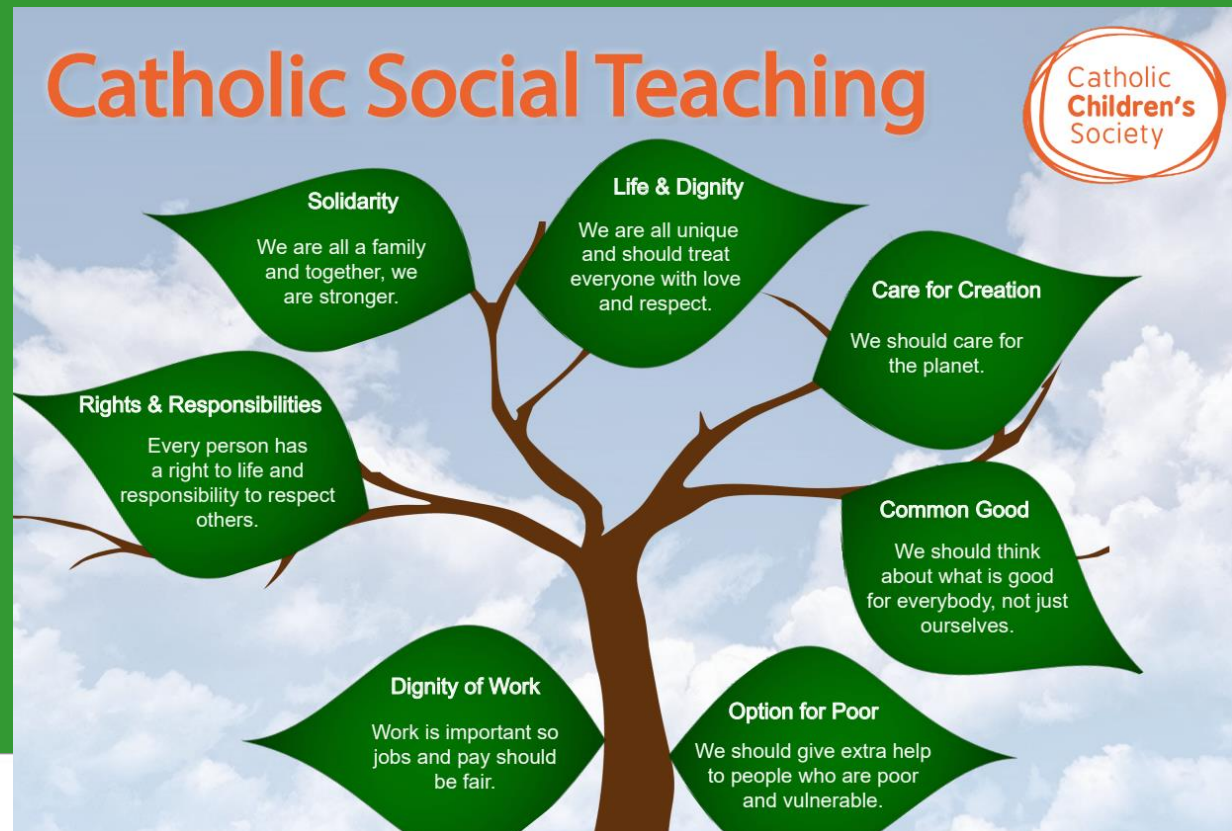

Why did they immediately go with him?!

What would you do?

- Jesus shows that he wants everyone to do well and reach their potential, no matter who they are. Catholics all around the world try to demonstrate this every day by following Catholic Social Teaching.

- The seven key principles show us how we should try to live in our world for the benefit of all.

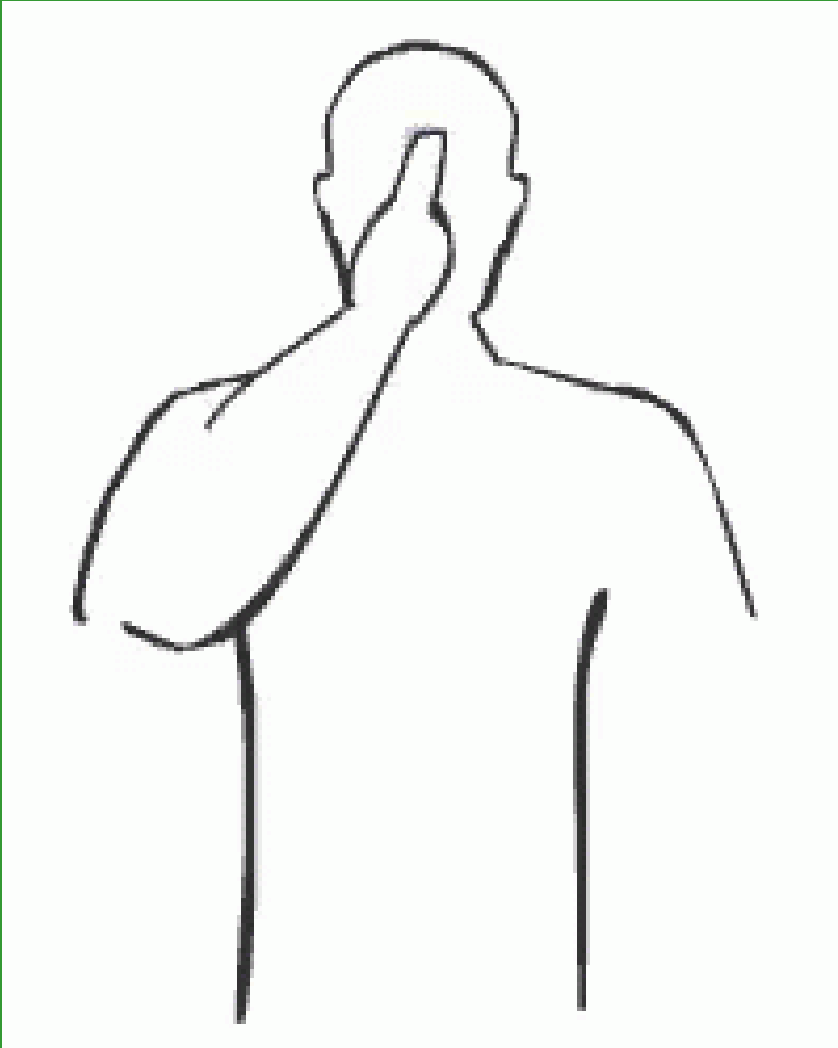

- How does this week's theme of rights and responsibilities relate to this week's Gospel?
- What responsibilities do you think Christians have today?

Dear God,

Help us recognize Your holiness and our need for Your grace. Strengthen us to witness our faith with courage and sincerity. Guide us to follow You wholeheartedly, leaving behind anything that holds us back. Amen.

Amen.

Day 2

11th Feb - Safer Internet Day

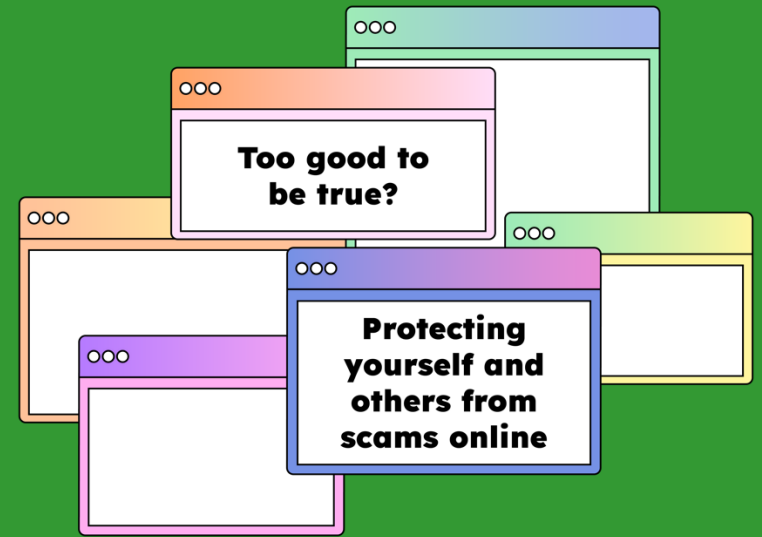

What are our rights and responsibilities online?

The theme for this year's Safer Internet Day is...

"Too good to be true?"

It is about how we protect ourselves online from people who do not have good intentions.

What signs of a scam do you know?

Too good to be true?

False urgency?

A 'trusted' voice?

Getting emotional?

Unexpected contact?

Asking for money or personal information?

Look out for these important signs of being scammed!

People will often play on your emotions to get you to do things you know are not right or that you don't want to do,

People who are vulnerable are more susceptible to being scammed - whether that is online or in daily life.

Catholic Social Teaching says that we all have the responsibility to look after the most vulnerable in society.

Who are the vulnerable in society?

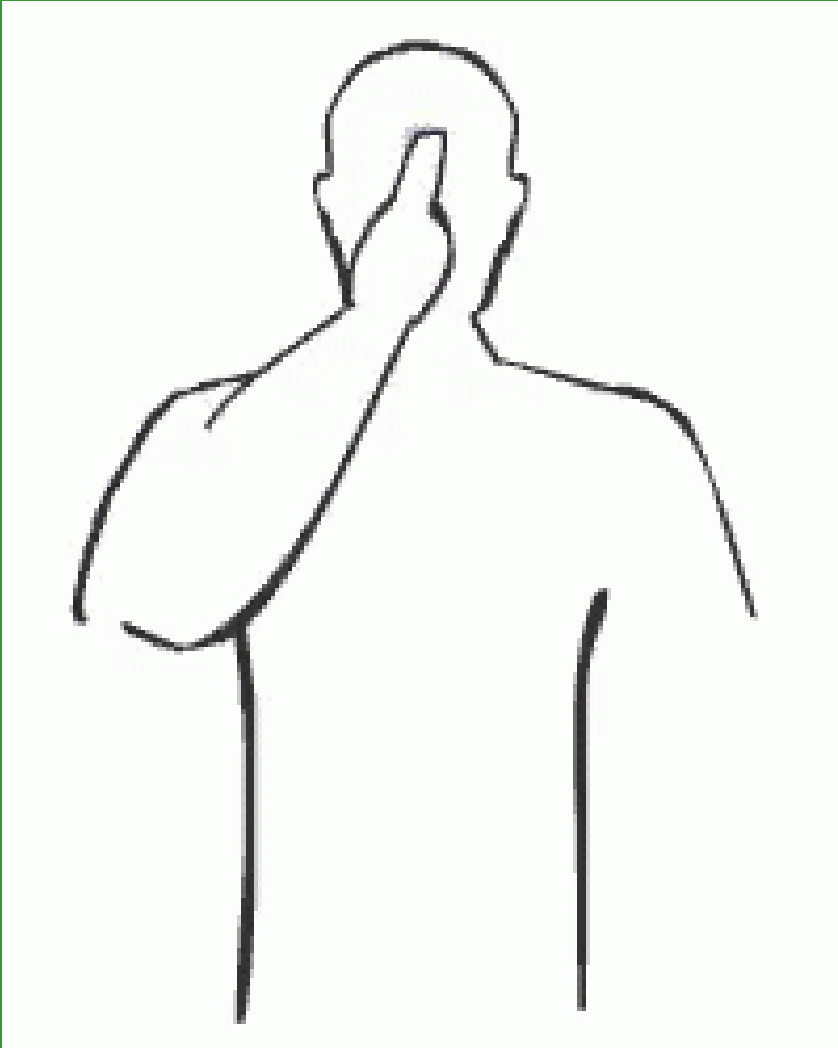

How can you help them this week?

Dear God,

Thank you for all you have given us. Help us to appreciate our human rights and to be aware of our responsibilities. We pray that through Catholic Social Teaching, we can help the vulnerable people in society to live a better life.

Amen.

Day 3

Rights and Responsibilities

What rights and responsibilities do we have in school?

Our vision statement says...

A vibrant community, uniquely created by God, which embraces everyone, especially those in need and celebrates difference. Enabled by a staff, dedicated to our Catholic ethos and a culture of excellence, our young people will be inspired to know more, and be more.

Which parts of this show our rights? Which shows our responsibility?

St Cuthbert's Catholic High School

All of you have the right to a good education - you also have the responsibility to make sure you approach your education appropriately.

Are you acting appropriately in school, or are you taking the rights of others away from them?

Watch the clip to see the importance education has for people around the world.

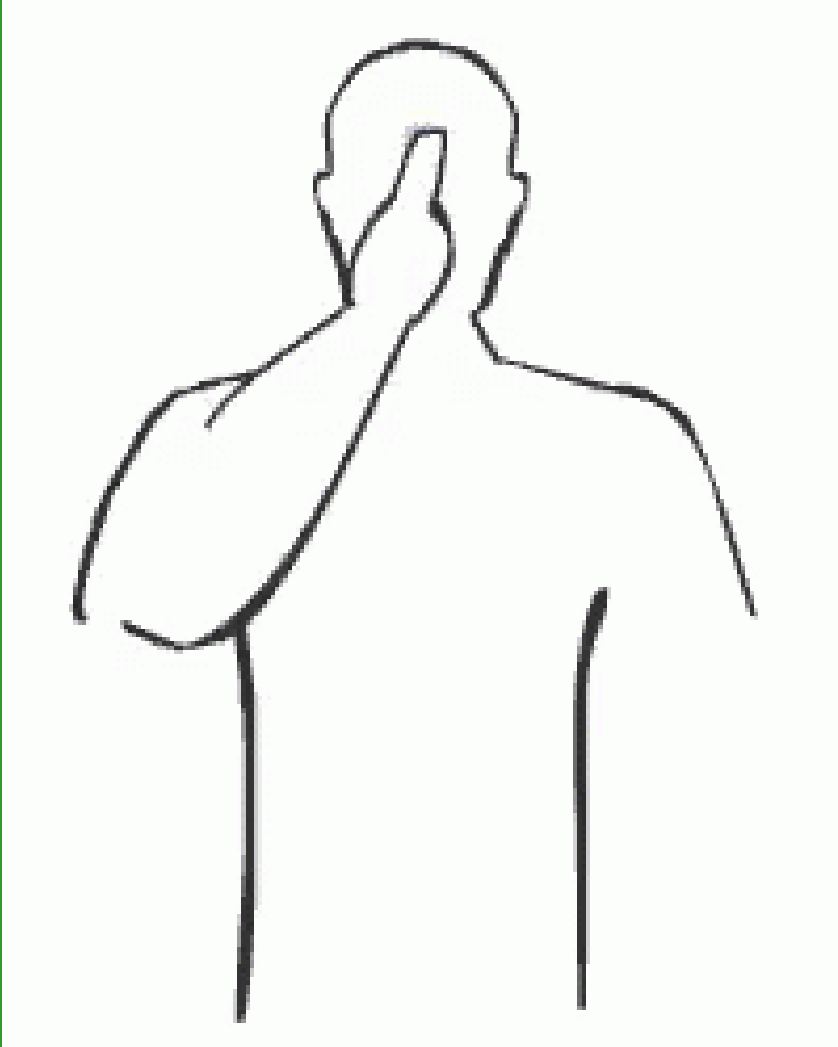

Dear God,

We thank you for our school community. We are grateful to grow up in a country that values education.

Help us to be aware of our responsibilities, to ourselves, our peers and the wider community. Let us use our education to be the best we can be.

Amen

Day 4

Commitment

Compassion

Community

Courage

Commitment

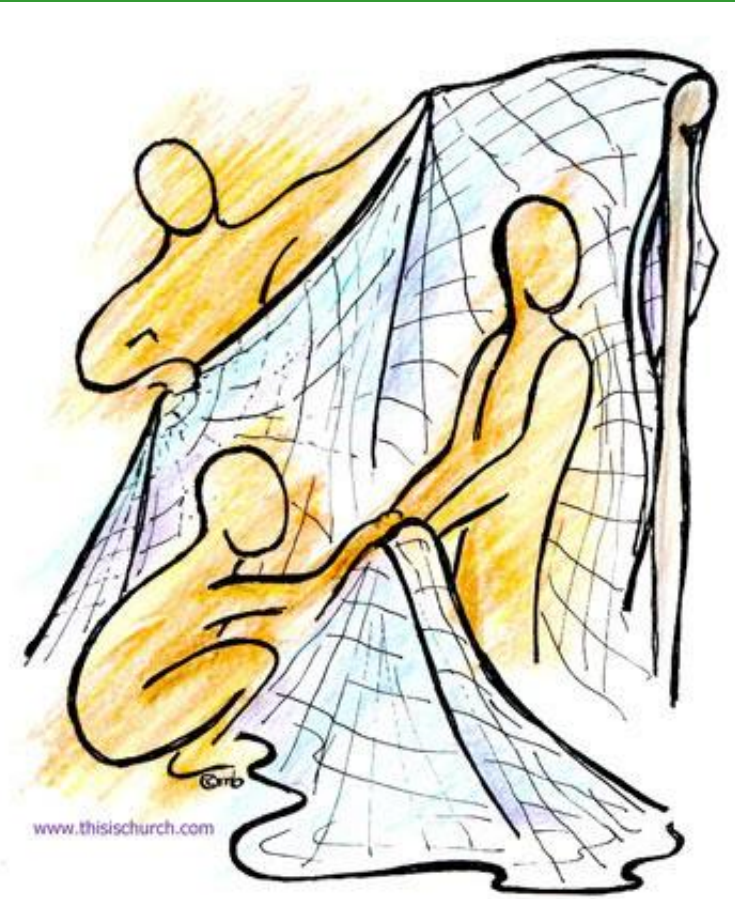

The Disciples showed complete commitment to Jesus when he called them.

They left all they had behind and followed him. They trusted him completely.

Could we do the same?

What things do we show commitment to?

www.thisischurch.com

and followed Jesus

St Cuthbert's Catholic High School
Live life in all its fullness

What did Jesus mean when he told them "I will make you fishers of men"?

How would you have felt if you were one of the disciples?

Jesus wanted the Disciples to continue his work and spread his message. Do we have to do this through words?

Listen to this pause for thought and think of other ways we can show that we are 'committed fishers of men'.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/play/p0kpn725>

Lord, we come to you as servants, willing to do your work. Help us to recognise we are part of a worldwide community with many parts.

We pray that we can show commitment to following your simple message of 'loving our neighbour', in both our actions and words.

Help us to do your work and begin to build your Kingdom on Earth.

Amen
